Our logo represents the meeting of the gaze of two characters sitting opposite one another. This image synthesizes our view of anthropology, that implies observing others but without forgetting that, at the same time, others are observing us. The logo also reflects one of JAV's aims: to create a dialogue between equal partners, an intercultural encounter based on equality, respect and tolerance.

